Acme Corporation

Employee Leave Policy

Effective Date: January 1, 2026 | Document Version: 1.0

1. Purpose

This Leave Policy outlines the types of leave available to employees of Acme Corporation, the eligibility criteria, and the procedure for requesting leave. The objective is to ensure fair and consistent treatment of all employees while balancing business needs.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all full-time, permanent employees of Acme Corporation across all departments and locations. Interns, contractors, and part-time employees are covered under separate arrangements described in their respective contracts.

3. Types of Leave

The following table summarizes the leave entitlements available to eligible employees each calendar year.

Leave Type	Days Per Year	Key Conditions
Casual Leave (CL)	12 days	Can be availed for personal reasons with at least 1 day prior notice. Maximum 3 consecutive days without manager approval.
Sick Leave (SL)	10 days	Requires a medical certificate for absences exceeding 2 consecutive days.
Earned/Privilege Leave (EL)	18 days	Accrued monthly at 1.5 days per month. Can be carried forward up to 45 days.
Maternity Leave	26 weeks	Applicable to female employees as per statutory guidelines. Must apply at least 8 weeks in advance.
Paternity Leave	10 days	Must be availed within 3 months of the child's birth.
Bereavement Leave	5 days	Granted in the event of the death of an immediate family member.
Leave Without Pay (LWP)	As approved	Granted only after all other leave balances are exhausted, subject to manager and HR approval.

4. Public Holidays

In addition to the leave types listed above, employees are entitled to all public holidays declared by the company each year, typically ranging between 10 and 12 days depending on the work location.

5. Leave Application Procedure

- Employees must apply for leave through the HR portal at least 2 working days in advance for planned leave.
- Sick leave may be applied on the day of absence or the following working day.

- All leave requests require approval from the direct reporting manager.
- Leave exceeding 5 consecutive days requires additional approval from the department head.
- Employees must ensure proper handover of pending work before proceeding on leave.

6. Carry Forward and Encashment

Earned Leave can be carried forward to the next calendar year up to a maximum of 45 days. Any balance beyond this limit will lapse unless the employee opts for encashment, which is processed once a year in the month of March. Casual Leave and Sick Leave cannot be carried forward or encashed and lapse at the end of the calendar year.

7. Unauthorized Absence

Any absence from work without prior approval or intimation to the reporting manager will be treated as unauthorized leave and may result in loss of pay for the days absent, in addition to disciplinary action as deemed necessary by management.

8. Public Holiday Falling on Weekend

If a declared public holiday falls on a weekend, employees will be granted a compensatory off, which must be availed within 30 days of the holiday, subject to manager approval.

9. Policy Review

This policy will be reviewed annually by the Human Resources department and is subject to change based on statutory requirements or business needs. Employees will be notified of any changes via official company communication channels.

10. Contact

For any questions regarding this policy, employees may contact the HR department at hr@acmecorp.com.
